

Better teamwork. Better results.

The more we work with owners the better the outcome for their dog.

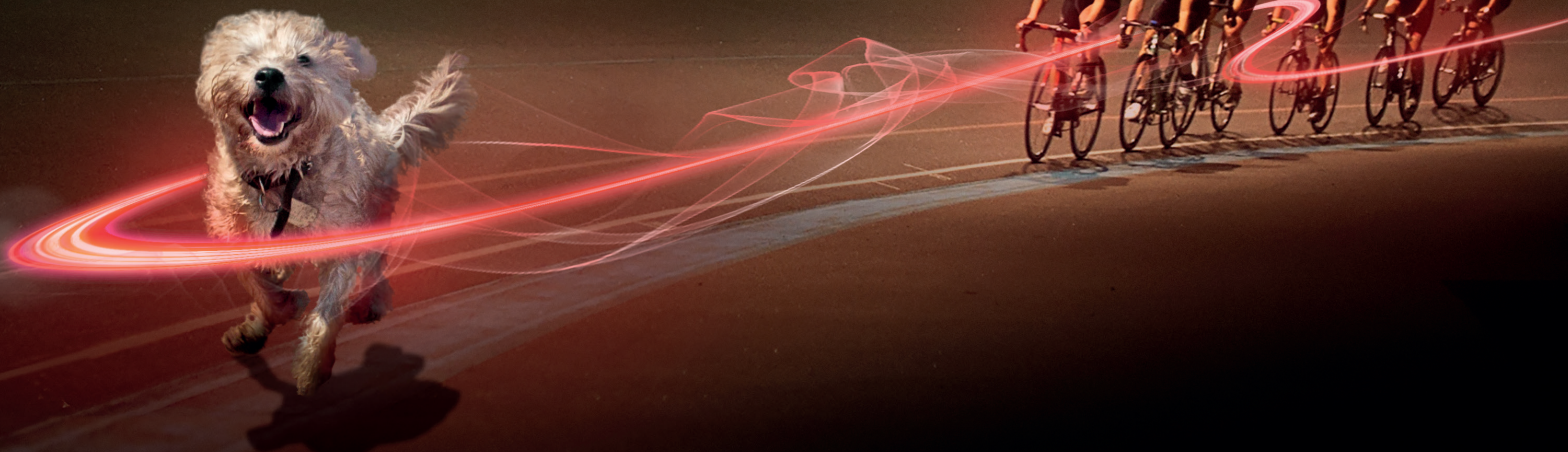

When it comes to beating Cushing's, everyone can share the winning feeling.

By working as a team with the owner, you can clearly measure the impact of Cushing's on them and their dog, and make the right treatment recommendations.

The emotional benefits are huge. It can lead to a better quality of life for vet, pet and owner.

Vetoryl doesn't just treat, it transforms.
